

Look Up, Look Up!

A read-together book from Sound It Out

- Look up, look up! What is there? The sun! Tilly finds the sunglasses.

Ask: Why does Tilly want sunglasses on a sunny day?

- Look up, look up! What is there? A cloud! Pip gets a jacket.

Ask: How does it feel outside when a cloud covers the sun?

- Look up, look up! What is there? The rain! Rusty gets the umbrella.

Ask: How does an umbrella help Rusty in the rain?

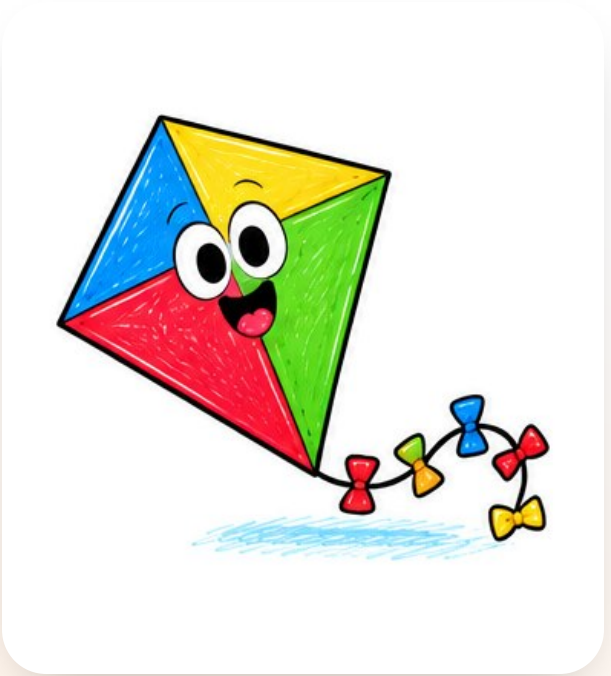

- Look up, look up! What is there?
  More rain! Splash likes the puddle.

Ask: What makes a puddle?

- Look up, look up! What is there? The wind! Hoot flies the kite.

Ask: Why do we need wind to fly a kite?

- Look up, look up! What is there?
  A rainbow! Comet loves the rainbow.

Ask: When have you seen a rainbow in the sky?

- Look up, look up! What is there?
  A snowflake! Tilly finds a scarf.

Ask: What kind of weather brings snowflakes?

- Look up, look up! What is there?
  Snow! Pip and Rusty make a snowman.

Ask: What would you use to make a snowman?

- Look up, look up! What is there? The moon! Hoot says, "Hoo, hoo!"

Ask: When do we see the moon in the sky?

- Look up, look up! What is there? A star! Comet makes a wish.

Ask: What wish would you make on a star?

- Good night, moon. Good night, stars. The friends say, "Good night, sky!"

Ask: What was your favorite thing the friends saw in the sky?

The End

You read it!

Read it again tomorrow: let your child point to every word.
